

After the Wedding

Congratulations on your wedding! Now that the wedding is over, there are still many things that have to be done. Following is a list of suggested details. Some things need to be done immediately following the reception, while others can wait until after the honeymoon and you've had a chance to catch your breath!

Immediately Following the Reception

- ☐ Give bouquet to someone who will take it to have it preserved as soon as possible
- ☐ Take gifts to a safe place
- ☐ Remove wedding cards from card box, keeping them in a safe place, and give card box to person who will be returning it
- ☐ Take top cake layer and freeze it as soon as possible
- ☐ Collect cake knife, server, toasting glasses
- ☐ Collect disposable cameras
- ☐ Dispense centerpieces as pre-determined
- ☐ Collect any extra food and alcohol if you are taking leftovers, or plan for a food co-op to pick up extra food for the home less
- ☐ Collect any cake dividers, linens, or rentals you are responsible for returning and specify who will return what
